NISEIS TAKE PART IN C.N.E. GRANDSTAND SHOW

Perhaps unassuming in their roles but nonetheless an integral part of the Canadian National Exhibition Grandstand Show are three young Niseis, Bobby Ito of Montreal and Naomi Kimura and David Toguri of Toronto, who can be seen in the nightly performance of the feature of the world's largest annual exhibition in Toronto, Aug. 22 to Sept. 6.

The three Niseis are part of the massive extravaganza, "Canadiana" which plays to over 14,000 persons every evening. Featuring Canadian talent except for the headline act of Tony Martin, popular American vocalist, the spectacle stresses Canadianism and highlights the entertainment with three spectacular productions.

The Nisei dancers all take part in the opening number, "Happy Harvest" in which tribute is paid to Canada's farmers, in Mendelssohn's "A Midsummer Night's Dream" and in the finale, "Toronto 1960" in which Toronto's future subway system is depicted in song-and-dance.

Bobby Ito, now a familiar name with Japanese Canadians who have followed his career from his acceptance in the Canadian National Ballet formed by Celia Franca of Sadler's Wells Company, and who has performed with the Company's appearances in Montreal, Toronto and other cities, dances with the ballet company in the numbers.

David Toguri who is a member of the Janet Baldwin Ballet of Toronto and who has been taking ballet lessons for the past two years, was accepted in producer Jack Arthur's CNE Corps De Ballet in an audition some time ago.

The third Nisei, Naomi Kimura, is a member of the 60-member chorus line, the "Canadettes". She was selected out of a large group of aspirants in an audition earlier this summer and has studied dancing for four years with the Boris Volkoff Ballet Studio in Toronto.

All three of them do duty in the rollicking opening number, the classic ballet, and, in the subway scene finale, Ito and Toguri can be spotted in the roles of janitor and messenger boy respectively. The Canadettes with which Miss Kimura dances, closes the show with a precise, high-kicking routine.

The first Niseis to perform in the grandstand show, they are all excited with the opportunity, and understandably so. For as well as performing with famous artists, they are a part of a show that has boosted Canadianism, and Canadian talent.

TWO OF THE FIRST Niseis to perform at the Canadian National Exhibition's Grandstand Show in Toronto are dancers David Toguri and Naomi Kimura.

Seek 'Naturalization Day' As Tribute to Pioneers

WASHINGTON, D. C. — Seeking White House support of JACL's plans for a "National Naturalization Day" program, dramatizing the granting of naturalization privileges to the Issei, Edward J. Ennis, legal counsel of the JACL, ADC, and Richard Akagi of the Washington JACL ADC office will meet with White oHuse aides to outline the public relations of the proposed enterprise.

The JACL ADC representatives stated that the great contributions made by the Japanese pioneers to the economic and cultural development of the United States can be made known to the general American public during the course of a "National Naturalization Day" program, as presently contemplated by the JACL.

The officials of the State Department, the Immigration and Naturalization Service, and the Department of Justice already have been approached regarding their cooperation in such a program.

While the focus of the program will naturally be on the Issei, said the JACL ADC representatives, some attention will be paid to the partnership of the Issei and the Nisei, which has been without parallel among other groups, in eliminating the racist restrictions from our naturalization laws.

The recent enactment of the Immigration and Nationality Act is not only a legislative milestone for all persons of Japanese ancestry but it is also a tribute to the steadfast cooperation of the Issei with the Nisei in pressing for equality in naturalization, declared the Washington office of the JACL ADC.

The Washington JACL ADC office indicated that a "National Naturalization Day" program, besides promoting better understanding of persons of Asian ancestry among other Americans in this country, would also go far toward proving to the peoples of the Far East that most Americans are sincerely desirous of removing racial prejudices from our society.

The meeting is to be held at the United Church on Sept. 6 starting from 8 p.m.

NISEI AMONG TOP AUTO DAREDEVILS

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah — A Salt Lake City Nisei who always had wanted "to do something different" is now one of America's outstanding auto daredevils and is presently a member of the Joe Chitwood Thrill Circus which features leapfrogging autos, head-on crashes and other stunts performed with passenger cars.

Aki Kimura, now with the main unit of Chitwood's travelling show, heads a group called Aki Kimura's Dragon Drivers of Tokyo. He is in line for a $10,000 prize awaiting the season's high-point driver, being tied with Chitwood for individual point honors.

When Kimura does stunts such as [illegible], dive-bombing, and ramp-to-ramp broad jumps in his 1952 Ford, he says that he hardly hears the crowd's roar since he is too busy remembering that "doing something different" means facing death.

Crowned 1952 'Strawberry King'

MISSION CITY, B. C. — The top grower of strawberries in the Fraser Valley in British Columbia this year was Kauyemon Shikaze of Dewdney.

The Issei was crowned 1952 Strawberry King at a Rotary Club ceremony on Aug. 19 at Mission City. He also won a cup for winning the title in the contest sponsored by the Mission City Rotarians.

Arouse Public Opinion To Accept Immigrants

A Japanese delegate to the Pax Romana congress now in session in Toronto highlighted discussion on the problem of over-population of Japan by asking the federation of the congress to arouse public opinion in the countries of the world to accept Japanese as immigrants.

Peter Yoshizawa of Tokyo said that the population of Japan now is 85 millions but the country is no bigger than New York state. Supplying food for all the people has become an acute problem.

He was asked by the Pax Romana executives to prepare a report on the conditions in Japan and submit it to them for study.

Issei to Face Murder Trial in Kamloops

KAMLOOPS, B. C. — Kosaburo Masuda, 56, who was charged with the shooting of his 17-year-old daughter, Mrs. Lily Y. Bing, on Aug. 7, was committed to trial for murder by magistrate Arthur Rankin on Aug. 20.

Masuda will probably be tried at the Fall Assizes scheduled to begin here on Nov. 3. An alleged statement read in court during the two-day hearing indicated that the Issei hated his Chinese Canadian son-in-law, John Bing.

Mrs. Bing, mother of a 3-week-old son, had died in Royal Inland Hospital, half an hour after a shot gun had been fired at her.

Only Teaching Grad. In B.C. May Be Sansei

VANCOUVER — The first Sansei to graduate from the Provincial Normal School at Victoria, B. C., and probably the only Japanese Canadian graduate this year at the school is Fumi Matsuzaki.

Miss Matsuzaki will teach this fall at a school in Surrey, B. C., a small Fraser Valley community.

She is the sister of Mrs. Toyo Miyazawa who also was a school teacher in the Kootenay Valley district during the evacuation. Miss Matsuzaki finished her high school education in Kaslo.

"Japanese in the Americas"

Issei in Canada Have Comparable History With U.S. Japanese in Early Pioneer Role

By ELMER R. SMITH

Livingston, Calif., is a community made over from the shifting sands of the desert. It used to be a barren, dry region scorched by a fierce sun. Today it is one of the most thriving areas in California. Before the Japanese moved into the region and made trees, flowers and orchards grow in abundance, there were no shade, water, schools, sanitation.

One should remember that 12 years before the Japanese decided to move to Livingston a Caucasian colony had tried to conquer the desert. After a brief struggle with hostile conditions, this first colony moved out. When a small group of Japanese stated they were moving to Livingston in 1906, all the people in the surrounding communities made fun of them, and said they would be "blown away" as others had been before them.

The Livingston Japanese colony faced disaster after disaster, and they almost starved through five very lean years before a profit came from their labors. The wind swept away the soil loosened by the tilling of the desert floor, and the hot, dry climate dried up their young plants. Plagues of grass-hoppers devoured what the wind left. Water for domestic use had to be carried for two long, hot miles. In 1909 the Japanese Bank in San Francisco, which held second mortgages on the land, closed its doors. The outlook for the colony was black and dreary. The colonists had no money, and many went from one day to the next without many of the basic necessities. However, their faith in their land and in themselves carried them through.

Today the community of Livingston is a thriving and rich area in California. Grapes, peaches, figs and a variety of other fruits are raised in abundance in what was once a "wind blown" desert. All of this is due to the pioneering spirit of a few Issei and their children.

The Japanese in Canada had a comparable history of pioneering as did those of the United States. One of the principal fields where the Japanese were able to pioneer was in the fishing industry of British Columbia. They were in the fishing industry from the beginning of settlement. Records show that Japanese fishermen were located near the mouth of the Fraser River in 1885. Their success as fishermen contributed millions of dollars to the fishing industry of Canada. However, competition with the Indians and Caucasians was keen and often bittter, developing into numerous discriminatory acts leveled against the Japanese.

The Japanese in Canada have been closely allied with the lumbering industry from early days. Lumbering was especially appealing to the Japanese because it demanded labor, and the Japanese fishermen would work at lumber camps and mills during the off-season in fishing. Furthermore, the lumber camps and mills were located close to the fishing centres, making long trips unnecessary for the gaining of employment. Non-Japanese labor recognized the importance of the Japanese in the lumber industry and as in fishing protests and discriminatory acts were leveled against them. After 1921, when anti-Japanese agitation in the lumber industry began to reach its strength, Japanese lumbermen began to decrease, but even then until World War II, many Japanese lumber operators could be found in British Columbia.

In mining, railroading and agriculture the Japanese in Canada played a leading pioneering role as they did in the United States. The Canadian Japanese and the Japanese American in the early days left a comparable inheritance to their children. This inheritance is one of faith in themselves, in their integrity, their worth, and in the country in which they live. It was this inheritance which made possible the strength of the Nisei in the United States and Canada during the trying times of World War II.

On Nylon Blouses

Add another score to the growing list of the formidable and deadly weapons which The Woman has at her disposal to befuddle mere man. I'm speaking about nylon blouses.

On these summery days, one gets to thinking about these things since there's so much opportunity to examine these specimens of ladies wear on our fair streets. Not content with the demoralizing influence that nylon stockings have left on the too impressionable male, the lovely ladies have come up with another of their ingenious things. What with conventional things like Chanel No. 5, finger-nail polish, poodle-cuts, and the more desparate aids to nature like falsies, now nylon blouses.

I was talking recently to one male who told me, "These things do marvels for women. Doesn't matter what kind of figure she has, I run for blocks just to catch up with a girl who's wearing one."

I slapped his idiotic face several times. To think that that is what makes Sammy run. He is the slowest thing I know otherwise.

I really have nothing against them. They are excellent stuff for imagination, particularly for one who has such a well developed imagination as mine. But they have the same effect as a Bikini bathing suit and are even more revealing since the male mind has more to work upon. Think of the eyebrows that would be lifted should women wander about the streets in negligees. It is not a far cry from that.

On the male physique, I think nylon shirts look downright ugly since male underwear has lost its appeal long since Clark Gable first revealed his undershirt to screaming women in a celebrated movie role. I'm told that it's easy to wash and that there is no necessity for pressing it. Remarkably ingenious but the silhouette of underwear through the nylon shirt just leaves me cold. I do not wear them.

Women have long lost their shyness as far as wearing revealing clothes. In wearing the nylon efforts, the woman seems pretty anxious to show off her unmentionables. It won't be long before the flattering male will comment, "What a lovely slip you have on, my dear". And the female will blush prettily and feel proud as hell.

I do admit that nylon blouses make the woman look very feminine. In the same manner that nylon stockings make even a mediocre looking leg something for stimulating discussion, they have a sort of an equalizing effect in that most women can wear them without looking around and throwing catty remarks.

But the idea of the whole thing sort of staggers me. It is not as light-hearted [illegible] casting barbs around [illegible] the woman has [illegible] around [illegible] more artificial means [illegible] her eternal mission. [illegible] ever are the days when they [illegible] [illegible] and less [illegible].

[illegible] be fair about it. I asked a member of the other sex [illegible]. With an air of [illegible] and naivette which was almost convincing, she remarked, "They are so awfully cool in the summertime".

Heck. I should have [illegible] then, but later I realized [illegible] they also wore them in [illegible] time. I suppose one can [illegible] solace in the idea that they [illegible] all for us. Us lucky males. It's a nice gesture but so hazard[illegible]

Autumn Is A Woman

"Paul," I asked, "why aren't you married?"

I was very young, and I wasn't ready for marriage, but I thought, at that time, that if I were twenty years older, Paul would be very nice to live with. I thought then, too, that all nice people were married . . . you know, a princess for every Prince Charming.

"Why?" he smiled quizzically at me, me at fifteen, gauche of manner, impulsive of speech, and terribly, terribly intense, and said, "Well, chicken, let me see . . . I guess I'm just waiting for you to grow up."

"You make me so mad, Paul! I mean seriously!"

And matching my intensity with a seriousness that made me feel very, very grown-up and wise, not at all an awkward half-child, half-woman which I found unbearable, he confided: "Well, chicken, I'll tell you. I'm in love with a lady called Autumn . . "

"O Paul, you're crazy!"

There was something delightful about Paul, for an old man of 29.

Paul had a way of making me feel important. "Why, chicken, I thought you'd understand. I'm disappointed in you. There's something about her . . . you know . . . a . . "

"O yes, Paul!" I broke in with a rush, "Her eyes are smoky-grey . . . and her hair light brown . . . "

"No, chicken, black as midnight . . . light brown is for summer . . . . . "

"But spring's nice, Paul, and summer . . . "

"Nice, yes, chicken . . . but Autumn is a woman . . . "

"O", I said rather disappointedly, "Is that all?"

Then he lifted my chin, looked into my puzzled eyes and said, "Being a woman is the most wonderful thing that can happen to you. Don't forget it, chicken!"

* * *

Since then, I have made friends with Autumn. And I know now, why Paul loved Autumn.

* * *

Yes, you, Autumn, are a woman.

You are of many moods. You are expectancy, fresh, clean and exhilarating. The sleepy, blue-gray haze slightly touched with gold in the morning, the wind just rustling the leaves in the trees, the sharp touch of frost in the air, the smell of dew on the grass—with these simple things you can inspire dreams. You make one wake up in the morning feeling capable of tackling anything.

You are serenity. You are not afraid of silence for its own sake. You are not afraid of unspoken, wordless moments. You do not rush pellmell like spring. The rippling water, the wanton breeze, the madcap ringing of bluebells, the noisy hum of insects are not for you. Yours are the unspoken moments of tranquility like the quiet after-glow of a late September afternoon, the changing colours of an Indian Summer sky, the sight of smoke curling lazily into a clear, frosty sky. You are unspoken understanding.

You are courage. You live and love deeply. You laugh and you give generously. Your courage you express in a way which is contradictory to the fear often lurking in your heart. Courage and a hidden fear are mingled in the flight of birds turning south, in one half-green, half-sere leaf clinging tenaciously and precariously on a bare branch, in the flamboyant, riot of colour with which you deck yourself to meet a dying year. You go out to meet life unflinchingly. You are forever getting hurt, but you pick yourself up with a shrug of your shoulders, a flip of your midnight hair, and you march on, a gallant lady, to whatever fate awaits you.

And underneath your positiveness you are eternal sadness and mystery. You are of this world and yet not of it. You listen always, your head tilted as if to catch some far-off song which will answer the longing in the depths of your smoky eyes.

Autumn, you are man's dream of woman. You are man's need for inspiration and understanding, for what man is there alive, who at some moment or another, has not found himself under his own close scrutiny: not the great man he thought he was, but something less than man? You are part of a man's quest for happiness—not the material but the spiritual quest—serenity, generosity and courage. You are eternal mystery that teases man's ego, makes him rise to fulfill that need, to satisfy that longing which seems forever a part of you.

* * *

Autumn is earlier this year. She's passed by our garden hedge. There's a touch of scarlet where her sleeve carelessly brushed the branches . . . and there's a fresh, clean sharpness in the air.

And I can hear Paul saying, "Being a woman is the most wonderful thing that can happen to you. Don't forget it."

And [illegible] with Autumn is hard going . . . .

土場の附近の雪は、さんざんに踏みあらされていたが、伐木の現場の雪は真ッ白だった。いまも一人の山子が、二尺ばかりのエゾ松の根へノコをいれてぐーすぐーすとひいている。一升めしをくうという山子の仕事は、腹のすく仕事だ。寒さのきびしいなかでもシャツ一枚でがんばっている。それでいてねじり鉢巻のあたりから、湯気がぼうぼうとあがって、首すじや額をつたわる汗はたえまない。十間も上にある梢のあたりに大きな雲が浮んでいた。

大鋸ははじめいくらか躍っていたが、腰がおちついてからは、一本のコースを流れるように刻んでいった。

木を落すときが一番むずかしいときだ。この時だけはどんなに習熟した山子でも、緊張するものである。一寸でも角度がちがわれば、豫定していた方角にたおれないからである。またそのためにせっかくの樹が、裂けたり折れたりして、破損木にしてしまうことになる。それはかりでなくときには幹の下敷になって、生命をとられることすらあるのである。

鋸を八分はどいれて、それから斧をうつのだ。さっき『カン』『カン』とひびいていたのはこの時の斧の音だ。

その山子も、いよいよ決定打をうつ順序になった。

英人記者の見た再建東京 (二)

占領は東京の外面にアトを殘した。「米國化」の行われた範圍は正に大したものだ。日本人が西歐的な經營と産業技術に長じていることは明治維新以來よく分つている。能率的なことは確かだ。今それが米人經濟顧問の指導による近代技術〃採〃から新しい刺激を得たのだ。世界市場にその影響が感ぜられている。

東京自体、こうした技術の適用が成功したことをまざまざと示している。専門家の推定によれば、日本の工業生産はいま、一九三二―三六年水準を上回り、東京の工場は時間外勞働をしている印象を與える。日本の重工業製品は至るところで西歐の製品と競爭している。消費品も同じで、國内市場にばかり向けられてはいない。東京の商店には豊富な在庫品がある。

いまの日本は原綿を主に米國から仰いでいるが、世界纖維市場で有利な競爭ができる。そして國民は何でも選り好みができる。衣料は豊富安價でボロ服を着ているひとは珍しい。確かに東京では人々は非常に、こざつぱりしている。洋服が多くなつたせいもあつて、綿製[illegible]料の一人當り消費が一九三九年の半分に過ぎないという專門家の推定通りとしても、衣服の小ギレイ、こざつぱりしていることは歐洲の大半以上、他のアジア以上である。

東京の一般都民は衣料と食糧に恵まれている印象を與える。米と魚が主食である。魚は他の都市より大量で、種類も多い。小麥粉と砂糖の統制は最近なくなつた。お茶は安い。米は表面統制されているが、裏ではヤミが榮えている。午後の汽車で東京に入ると米のカツギ屋たちの姿を澤山見かける。肉はゼイタク品だが統制はなく、牛乳、バター、チーズも同じだ。

日本人の思いつきが競い合つている感じである。花屋と本屋――文明社會の看板――も繁盛している。東京の最近の流行はパチンコ屋だが、これは文明の看板にはいさゝか心もとない。

　米國コロラド州デンヴアーに「二世投資組合」というものがあつて、相互の發展と福利増進に寄與していることは、七月十六日の本らんで一寸紹介しておいたが、その後この組合の規約その他の情報を入手することが出來たので、その要旨を書いて人々の參考に供したい。

　この「二世投資組合」は、同胞間の小資本を一丸として共同事業を興し、會員の出資金で會員のために、當社多年の經驗と市、郡、州方面とのよき連絡を十分活用し、進歩的なそして合理的な投資技術により、最も効果的に利益を殖し、相互の發展と福利増進を圖り會員のよき協力者として奉仕することを目的とするものである。從來、同胞一世間に於て本會に類似せる組合、貯蓄組合、賴母子講等、色々と企てられたが、何れも完備せる規約書もなく、あつても法律的に價値のないものが多々あり、却つて迷惑をかけたものが多かつた。これらの事を十分考慮し、當地二世リアルター共同經營者たる辯護士安井稔氏と小生が多年研究の上、戰後再起を圖る同胞諸氏と相談の上、一昨一九五〇年創立以來各方面より豫期以上の賛同を得、段々隆盛に向いつゝあるものである。——とデンヴァーの谷三郎氏は私の手紙に對する返事に書き、組合規約の概要を特に日本文に翻譯したものを送つて下さつた。

　その概要を抜き書きすると以下の如くである。

×

●目的——本組合は同胞間の小資本を一丸とし、共同事業を興し相互の發展と福利増進を圖るものとする。

（註）これは日本人間には金融を受けるのを恥と思う人が多い故、一般に發表をさけるようにしてあるが、當社は土地家屋周旋業に從事して居るので、確實な金融が出來、又十分の抵當物をとるから危險は殆んど皆無である。

▲投資——本組合資金を支配人の提案せるものにして理事會大多數の是認する動產・不動產或はその他の事業に投資又はそれを賣買することとする。尚それ等取引に關する借款は理事會の認可を要するものとする。

　昔、ある國の王樣が衣裳好みで珍らしい着物を求めていた時、二人の惡者が、何もない機で織つたふりをして新らしい着物を着せると稱して、王樣を素ッ裸にして表を歩かせた。惡者たちは豫じめ「この着物は心の正しい者でなければ見ることが出來ない」と言いふらしておいたので、王樣も大臣も家來も民衆も、目に見えない着物が見わるような顔をしていたから、惡者の計略は見事にあたつたが、おしまいにこれを見ていた子供が「王樣は裸だ」と怒鳴つたので一同やつと事實を認める勇氣が出たという。

　これは有名なアンデルセンの童話だが、佛教についても同じことではなかろうか。

　裸の王樣が威風堂々と歩いているのを、みんなが感心して見ているので、何だか判らないが一緒になつて感心しているが、しかし納得しきれないものがある、と言つたようなのが、寺院佛教の現狀ではないか。

　裸の王樣に向つて「あなたはハダカだ」と斷言するには勇氣が必要だ。中世以來「ありがたい」ときまつている寺院佛教にむかつて「汝は僞物だ」と喝破することは同樣に勇氣を要する。

　むずかしい教義の問題については、いろいろと論議の餘地があるかも知れない。しかし何と強辯しても、絶對に辯解の餘地のないことは、結婚葬祭儀禮を營業としているという事實だ。それだけは誰が何んと言つても佛教の本義に眞向から違反する。佛教教會は本來、精神修行の團体であつて、宗教儀禮を業とするものではないからだ。

　こういう私の持論に對して「それなら祖先崇拜はどうするのか」という反問がよくある。それこそ、こちらから進んで說明したいところだ。だいたい讀經料を出して、わけのわからない經文を讀んで貰つて、それで祖先崇拜の美風だと思つている方が餘程おかしい。

　東西諸民族の死者儀禮を比較研究して見ると、葬儀の本當の目的は、祖先崇拜どころか、死靈の害を受けないように、敬して遠ざけるという、生存者の自己目的のためである。今日日本の、各地の葬儀の習慣から見ても、このことは明らかである。

　私の考えでは、本當に祖先を崇拜するつもりならば、祖先の意志を表現することに努力すべきだ。たとえば事業好きの祖父の名で投資するとか教育に熱心だつた祖母の名で育英資金に寄附するとかすればよい。私は戰沒した亡弟の追悼會には、一片の宗教儀禮を交えず、故人追憶の默禱と座談だけですませた。

　九月にはまた彼岸會を迎える。これは本來佛教とは無關係な行事で、インドにも中國にもなく、日本で創始したものだ。墓參して故人を追憶し故人の意志の實現に決心を新たにするのは結構だが、一通りの儀禮で義理をすませたように思つたりする習慣は、早くやめたいものだ。

子女の指導に就て

　八月十六日夜開かれた清水牧師の西部カナダ及び米國旅行報告會に出席して、大變有益な話をきき立派な映畫を觀て非常に教えられた。

　この報告會は清水牧師が各地を訪ねた模樣や旅から得た印象や感想を極く簡單に發表されたものであつたが、その報告談と散在した同胞の生活實寫は、大きな教訓や多くの問題を與えてくれた。

　カナダの歷史に新しい出來事であつた在加同胞の太平洋沿岸總移動に引續いて行われたカナダ政府の散在政策で再定住の仕事も一段落ついた今日に於いて、更に今後いろいろな問題を熟考檢討しなければならないと感じた。さいわい清水牧師は、これに關連した宿題を主要目標の一つとして旅行されたと聞いて、その見聞して來られた實情をもつと具体的に發表して頂き、同時に研究的な指導を受けたいと思つた。殊に成長盛りの子供を持つ我々にとつてそれが最も必要なことであり、それを願うものはただ私ひとりではないと思うものである。

運河の沿道

△五大湖をつなぐ運河のうちでもスー・セント・マリーとウエランドはともに重要水路とされている。ウエランド・キャナールについては少し書いたことがあつたが、今回の旅行では運河の全長約廿五マイルの沿道を友人の好意で見ることができ、その全貌をほゞ知ることができた。

△オンタリオ湖面の運河出入口に近い鐵橋から運河に沿つたハイウェーを南下したのである。運河の幅はトロントのスパダイナ街の一倍半位なもので堤防からはフルーツやブドウ畑、コーンやトマトの野菜園が青々とひろがつて見える。そのなかを上半身だけ浮び出して汽船が糸に引かれるように靜かに運航していく風景はまさに一幅の繪といいたい。

△この運河に沿うてソーロルドという小さい町があつてアロビンシャル製紙工場が未亡人によつて經營されている。ナイアガラ半島をふくむ南部オンタリオ州一帶でペーパー會社があるのはこゝだけだと思う。だからこの製紙社の存在は特異とされるのである。

△ともかくファームや野菜ばかりの特産地の眞只中で、しかもパルプ材にするものは何一ツ見當らぬ場所に製紙工場があるのだから不思議[illegible]。[illegible]このウエランド運河と結[illegible]何でも[illegible]であ[illegible]陸路よりずつと安い運賃で北部オンタリオから伐り出したパルプ材をこゝに荷揚げすることが運河によつて可能なのだからだ。

△走るほどに運河の兩面は青草が一面にしげり、並木が正しい間隔で樹蔭をつくつてピクニツカーがあちこちとテーブルを飾つているのを認めた。通る船毎に兩岸の人々からの挨拶をランカンに片足かけた船員たちが手をあげて答える全くのどかな風景である。

正確なヒナ鑑別器

日本の新發明品が米國で好評

昨年二月日本で特許權を得た「初生ヒナ雌雄鑑別器」が米國に目下紹介され、ほとんど百パーセントの正確さの上に費用が安いという養雞業に劃期的な貢献をする發明品と多大の興味が持たれている

△この新發明品の先生は今年五月末渡航した東京農大の坂本伸明氏（二四）で目下最初のクラス十五名にその使用方法を教えている。これまでのヒナ鑑別法によるとセクサー養成に五ヵ月かゝる上に費用が八百弗から千弗も要するものだが、鑑別器によると三日目にはほとんど百パーセントの正確さで一時間に三百羽くらい鑑別できるという

△三ヵ月もこの使用に慣れゝばセクサーが二、三年もかゝってやっと一時間七、八百羽のスピードが出るし、ヒナを殺すことなく、費用も鑑別器が四百弗、訓練費は百弗かゝるで済むとのこと、

Nittas Prep for International Tournament By Whipping Chatham, Tying AA Playoffs

Nitta Machinery, entry in the forthcoming Toronto JCCA Second Invitational Softball Tournament this weekend, kept oiling up its cogs by setting back the visiting Chatham Nisei, 12-8, and splitting the first two games of the best of three playoffs for the Toronto Intermediate AA championship with Family Credit last week.

Nittas took a 17-4 loss from Family Credit at Bellwoods in the series opener when they out-hit the opposition but fell prey to playoff jitters, committing an incredible 13 errors in which all but two players committed at least one bobble. Jack Tanaka started to be relieved by Paul Rennie.

At Kew Gardens, Nittas showed a complete reversal of form in eking out a 10-9 win to even the series. Roy Tanaka hurled 5-hit ball until the sixth inning when he was pulled in favor of Rennie with bases loaded. The latter pitched a no-hitter from that point on.

Joe Matsumoto doubled in the winning run in the last inning. Other hitters in the 8-hit attack were Sho Mori with a double and single and Roy Kobayashi, a double. Nittas took a 5-0 lead but Family Credit rallied to tie it up 7-7 in the sixth until Nittas went ahead again. The losers loaded the bases in the last half of the ninth but only scored one run.

The results of the rubber game played Monday was unknown at presstime. The winner will advance to the Ontario playdowns.

The visiting Chatham Nisei unearthed an outstanding hurler in Jeep Saki who would be a credit to any of the four teams who will take part in the international tourney. Nitta manager George Tanaoka's strategy in the early innings called for his players to bunt Saki's blazing fast ball. Poor support by his mates, however, led to Saki's giving up 17 hits. Roy and Jack Tanaka limited Chatham to nine hits.

Chatham tied the score 8-8 in the sixth but Nittas went ahead in the next inning to win the game. Key Tanaka led the hitters with three singles while Tad Miura and Joe Matsumoto each got two safeties. Cleanup man Toji Fujii for Chatham rapped out two hits.

Girls' Softball

Practices for next year's entry in the East Toronto Ladies Softball League, junior division, will continue today, Aug. 27, 6:30 p.m., and Aug. 31, 9:30 a.m., at Christie Pits. Girls under 19 years of age are encouraged to attend.

FAVORITES RULE SINGLES PLAY

The favorites ruled the opening rounds of singles play in the Fifth Nisei Tennis Open with no upsets recorded. Brilliant sunshine over the weekend launched the Open to a good start.

The singles reached the semi-finals stage and will be resumed next Sunday at 8 a.m. Chairman Fuz Fujiwara has scheduled ladies and men's B singles at Earlscourt on Aug. 30 with the ladies and men's doubles and novice play to start Sunday.

Shirley Tanaka will meet Chie Inamoto and Yoko Matsubayashi will play Chie Yanagisawa in the ladies semi-finals while George Ide plays Johnny Tanaka and Gus Hirano meets Tom Nobuoka.

The ladies fought through some gruelling matches. Shirley Tanaka, last year's titlist, had to recover from a 5-1 deficit in the deciding third set over Toshi Takasaki to win the second round and came up against a determined Amy Tsuruda in winning 2-6, 8-6, 6-2. Chie Inamoto downed Eiko Nakamura 4-6, 8-6, 6-3; Yoko Matsubayashi beat Kiyomi Arpi 6-3, 6-8, 6-2, and Chie Yanagisawa had to go all-out to oust Mary Ebata 7-5, 3-6, 6-3.

In men's play, Johnny Tanaka showed why he is top-seeded when he rallied from a 5-1 score in the third set with Tom Iwasaki in winning 3-6, 6-3, 7-5. George Ide beat Mickey Matsubayashi 6-3, 9-7, Tom Nobuoka beat Yoshi Watanabe 7-5, 6-1, and Gus Hirano took Matt Matsui 6-0, 4-6, 6-2.

Bests Vacate Viaduct Cellar in Playoff Bid

Best Cleaners finally moved out of the Viaduct Senior Baseball League cellar by a ½ game margin when they won two games during the past week. With two games remaining in the season, the Cleanermen need only one victory to clinch a playoff spot.

On Aug. 21, the Bests took on Drive Grill and whipped them 6-2 as Basil Cormier pitched a neat 5-hitter. Ed Hisaki was behind the plate. The winners scored most of their runs on some clever baserunning and well executed squeeze plays.

Bests moved out of the cellar on Aug. 23 when they played superb ball to defeat Defoe Motors 4-0. Fireballing Bill Smith who impresses each time out, pitched brilliantly, limiting Defoe to three hits, and racking up his second win for Bests. Ken Kutsukake was the other end of the battery.

Peppery Bob Ohashi sparked the team offensively with two hits.

Big Golf Tourney of Year Slated for Aug. 31, Sagara Tops Yamada in 36-Hole Match Play

The major Japanese Canadian Eastern Canada golf tournament of the year, the annual Labor Day meet, will be held by the Toronto Golf Club on Sunday, Aug. 31, at the Rouge Hills Golf and Country Club. A contingent of 10 players from Montreal is also expected to participate.

Players will tee off as soon as daylight allows, rain or shine. There will be three flights and five equal prizes for each. Prizes will also be offered for the best low gross and low net scores of the morning and afternoon.

Entry fee has been set at $1.25. All Toronto non-members wishing to participate will be considered associate members and will be assessed $1.00. Such players should contact Lake Tanabe, at PR. 2360 as soon as possible. Handicaps will be rated on their five best scores.

Sam Yamada will be the defending titlist, having carded 83-82 in the 36-hole tournament last year.

In the club's match play championship, completed last Sunday, Tom Sagara's steady play won him a 4-2 decision over Sam Yamada [illegible] Rouge Hills course. [illegible] at St. An[illegible] Aug. 17 the two fin[illegible] [illegible] tied and the match moved over to Rouge Hills.

On the outgoing nine, the match was even, but Sagara took command by taking the 11th, 12th and 13th holes, losing the 14th, and winning the 15th for a dormie 3. He finished the match by shooting a par on the 16th while Yamada took a bogie.

Yamada's putting was quite spectacular but on several holes, his ball stopped at the lip of the cup. On the 4th, Yamada sank a 30 foot rolling downhill putt to take the lead momentarily but it was Sagara's methodical game that won the championship.

In the consolation play, Tom Kutsukake beat brother George.

ACROSS MY MIND . . . By Jack Nakamoto

Television will at last make its Canadian debut when the first official telecasting begins next month in Montreal and in Toronto. Marking the birth of a new Canadian Industry, TV holds many possibilities as well as opportunities for employment to thousands of people.

Television will serve far better than press or radio in the field of sports, politics, education, etc., as a medium for reaching the people. For it offers us an intimate glimpse of these numerous activities leaving us free to annlyze the problems at hand, and so form our own opinions.

Actually winning its spurs last year, TV brought into the homes of American people the Kefauver Committee's crime investigation hearings, resulting in an urgent awareness for the need of constant vigilance and action against organized crime. Through TV, outstanding events, such as the signing of the Japanese Peace Treaty this year in San Francisco and the recent Republican national convention in Chicago were unfolded before the American people, thereby affording them a better understanding of the national as well as the international situation.

As is to be expected, the impact TV will have on us has long been a bone of contention. In Toronto where TV has already come by way of U.S. stations, a librarian reports that of 200 people questioned, 42% of the adults, 37% of the young people and 35% of the children said they were reading less. The BBC making a TV survey in the United Kingdom reports that 7 out of 10 viewers have had no full-time education after the ages of 14 or 15.

It is up to us then whether TV is to enslave us to the point of taking up all our time or to become an occasional source of entertainment and education for us.

It is to be hoped that like its radio programs the CBC will telecast something worth our while and attention.
